

NORTHERN COMMAND TEACHERS TRAINING WORKSHOP CONCLUDES

Northern Command organised two days workshop for teachers, the following school participated in workshop, APS Srinagar, APS Udampur, APS Dhar Road, APS Nagrota, APS Rakhmuthi & APS Akhnoor. Army Public School, Akhnoor conducted two days workshop on subject 'Communicating to Motivate Students' under Northern Command jurisdiction from June 5th to June 6th 2018. The workshop commenced with the inaugural address by Chairman Brig Gautam Segan. He declare the workshop open and give his best wishes to all Teachers of various Army Schools of Northern Command The resource person, Dr Sarita Sood, a psychologist accentuated on NLP (Neuro – Linguistic Programme) and shared her expertise on varied activities for developing visual, auditory and kinesthetic aspects of children. The workshop involved presentations and thought provoking activities for refreshing the teaching learning process. An interactive session was carried out by Principal of APS Akhnoor, Mr KCS Mehta, wherein he addressed his views and thoughts on aggrandizing motivational level of children. While sharing many inspirational stories, Mr Dheeraj Sharma, MD DCM Public School, emphasized on the role of teachers in understanding the mental capabilities of children.

Second day started with the presentation of Mrs Talitha Philip, counsellor APS Akhnoor. She emphasised on role of teachers to motivate students by communicating with them accordingly. The second presentation as given by Mr Suresh Kumar Koul, His interactive presentation involves all participants to give their views and share their experiences. The programme was compared by Mrs Meenakshi Sharma , Jr Coordinator and Miss Anjali Sharma. Vote of thanks was presented by Mr Rakesh Chander, Vice Principal of School. Certificates and mementoes were presented by Principal, and Vice Principal and Jr Coordinator. Patron of the school, Maj Gen M K Mago, has sent his best wishes for the workshop and advised to the teachers to work for welfare of the students and guide them to do well in their studies and get placed in best professional colleges. Director Northern Command also send their best wishes to all the participants. All participants and Principal, APS Akhnoor seen posing in Photograph.

Sd/- xx xx xx
(KCS Mehta)
Principal